Misses Mary Lou Frazer, of Mississippi, Katherine Bridgeman, of Virginia, Edith Willingham of S. C., Christine Thomas of Georgia, and Misses John Blackburn, Chris. Rector and Rev. R. Roy Brown comprise a house party who have been visiting Rev. and Mrs. F. D. Vaughan. Several entertainments were given for them.

A most enjoyable affair of Wednesday afternoon was a picnic at the Durham place for Misses Lucy and Kate Doty's house party. A dozen or more couples went out in automobiles, and every body took their bathing suits and picnic lunch. After several hours in the pond the picnic spread under the trees at twilight was very tempting.

Rev. and Mrs. F. D. Vaughan gave an elaborate party at their home in the Lebanon section on Wednesday evening, for their house guests. After being presented to the receiving line, composed of the host and hostess and the honorees, the half hundred or more guests were scattered over the spacious lawn, where Japanese lanterns twinkling among the numerous trees and shed a soft light. Cards were given to every body, and they were filled out by the girls, leap year style. Late in the evening cooling ices were served by a bevy of girls.

WINNSBORO GUARDS NOT ACCEPTED

About Forty Three Men Enlisted and Tender Their Services to the Country.

Immediately on the call of the President for the State militia to enlist under the law and mobilize at Columbia for service in the regular army, Capt. J. B. Doty of the local company, went to work to see how many men he could enlist and about forty responded to the call but the minimum number required for each company being sixty-five the Winnsboro Guards were not accepted and some other company will take the place of Company K. in the first regiment. Men from other places might have been secured but the officers wanted it to be home men and being a very busy season the matter was dropped.

Captain, J. B. Doty: 1st Lieutenant, J. E. McDonald, Jr.; 2nd Lieutenant, J. J. Obeur. Privates—E. B. Lewis, Jas. M. Macfie, John J. Hollis, S. W. Alexander, Joe Haynes, J. W. Stevenson, Dunnam McCants, C. W. Bolick, R. A. Roach, C. G. Tennant, G. W. Wheeler, J. J. Joyner, Willie Plax, E. G. Brank, Frank Orr, J. B. Walker, E. M. Phillips, J. M. Douglas, J. S. Batton, J. S. Willford, W. G. Ragsdale, E. P. Burley, H. L. Elliott, Jr., C. D. Orr, Bud. L. Orr, William Reed, J. F. Stewart, Willie Robertson, Walter Mattox and R. Boulware. There were ten others who had signed their willingness to join but had not signed the roll.

Summer School for Delinquent Pupils.

The trustees of Mount Zion Institute have established a summer session for a month or possibly six weeks for all scholars who failed to be promoted last year or who have any failures at all in their studies. There will be no charges to those taking advantage of the school. Miss Isabel Hoy will be in charge of the school. She will be glad to answer any inquiries in regard to the hours, course of study, etc. This is a wise move on the part of the trustees and they are to be commended for their action.

First Cotton Blooms Received.

On last Thursday the News and Herald received a cotton bloom from Mr. C. M. Mann, of Bookman. Mr. Mann sent in the first bloom last year. On Friday on the farm of E. W. Coleman & Sons was found several blooms.

Mr. T. L. Johnston has also sent in a bloom.

Don't Loaf on Your Dad.

Abbeville Medium: Young man, your dad has paid your expenses to college the past year. He has worked during the time that you were there. He will probably get ten days' vacation this summer. Do you think that you deserve three months vacation? No, you don't. Then go to work even if you only make enough to pay for the dopes you drink. You'll feel more like a man.

Washington, June 21.—Reports that American and Carranza troops had clashed aroused greatest apprehension here tonight for future relations between the United States and the Mexican de facto Government, already strained almost to the breaking point.

Officials decline to prophecy as to the next step of the Washington Government. They made no effort to conceal their anxiety, but were not ready to abandon hope that an official account of what happened at Carrizal would remove the more threatening elements of the situation.

Mrs. John Wallace of Atlanta is the guest of her sister, Mrs. A. Lee Scruggs, while her husband, Dr. Wallace is in New York taking a special course.

Mrs. Jordan's Music Recital.

On Thursday afternoon at 5:30 Mrs. Jordan's music class gave a recital at Mt. Zion. In spite of the stormy weather a good audience was present to enjoy the exceptionally good program presented. The pupils all showed marked improvement, and both they and their teacher are to be congratulated on the result of the last term. The program consisted of the following numbers:

Duo—Pure as Snow, Misses Agnes Stevenson and Kathleen Willingham.

Solo—Greeting to Spring, Class.

Solo—Mayflower Waltz, Miss Genie McMaster.

Solo—Bonnie and Brave, Miss Katherine McMaster.

Duo—Roy Robinson and Mrs. Jordan.

Solo—Tender Flower, Miss Frances Clowney.

Solo—Playtime Land, Misses Frances Clowney, Jessie Douglas, Katherine McMaster, Genie McMaster, and Roy Robinson.

Solo—Silver Stream, Miss Izzetta Clarke.

Solo—Chimes at Twilight, Miss Jessie Douglas.

Solo—Music on the Lake, Miss Frances Clowney and Roy Robinson.

Solo—The Village Girls Waltz, Miss Agnes Stevenson.

Solo—Song Without Words, Miss Juanita Dunn.

Duo—In Martial Spirit, Misses Bertha Turner and Etta Lee Scruggs.

Solo—Kathleen Mavourneen, Miss Kathleen Willingham.

Solo—The Two Clocks, Misses Eddie Sweet, Eunice Carter, Elizabeth Cathcart, Abbie Hanahan, Lucile Kirkpatrick, Marion Seigler, Jiza Bruce and Clarence Bruce.

Solo—Woodland Echoes, Miss Hazel Crowson.

Solo—Shower of Stars, Miss Etta Lee Scruggs.

Solo—Sublime Sweet Evening Star, Miss Ruth Doty.

Duo—La Czarine, Misses Alice Carter and Elizabeth Coan.

Trio—La Dame Blanche, Misses Ruth Doty, Agnes Stevenson and Kathleen Willingham.

Solo—Titania, Miss Elizabeth Coan.

Solo—Whispering Zephyrs, Miss Kittie Lee Steele.

Solo—The Merry Zingarellas, Class.

Solo—Good night—Class.

Duo—Gipsy Rondo—Misses Ruth Doty and Elizabeth Coan.

The song "Merry Zingarellas" was rendered by the entire class in Gipsy costume, which was very picturesque and attractive.

The "Two Clocks" was especially fine and was greatly enjoyed.

Where all was good it is hard to discriminate, but the playing of little Miss Genie McMaster in perfect time and without notes, was worthy of mention, as was also the song by Miss Frances Clowney and Roy Robinson. Two of the most attractive numbers had to be omitted on account of the absence of Miss Emelyn Macfie.

Salem Items.

The farmers have been badly in need of rain, which came last week.

The crops are very good considering the season we have had.

We are glad to have our college girls and boys back home with us.

Several of our young people attended the dance at Feasterville Thursday night. They reported a nice time.

A terrible accident happened in this community last week.

Mrs. Will Turner and Mrs. Mose Clarke were going to Mrs. Bill Propst's when the horse got frightened and threw them out of the buggy. Mrs. Clarke's shoulder was broken and Mrs. Turner bruised a little.

SOME CREDIT DUE TO HARRY

Recovery of Needed Money Could Not Be Called Altogether an Act of Providence.

Three or four years before he was married he had, in a reckless moment, loaned to a good friend the triding sum of $100. A year later he had begun to throw out gentle hints that he knew of a good dividend-paying stock he could buy for $100 a share. But Good Friend didn't come across. When he was about to buy furniture for his new home he plainly told Good Friend he needed the coin, but that individual changed the subject. After he had settled down to the hum-drum of married life he and his wife often would speak of the many nice things they could buy with that $100.

She was a firm believer in Providence, he was somewhat infirm. One day he lost his job, and the weeks went by, and he didn't find another. Then his wife took sick; her mother came to live with them—things went from bad to worse, generally, and he talked of shooting himself. His wife told him to cheer up, to be brave, and not to despair—the Lord would provide for them. Trust in Providence, she said. And the very next day, after that little sermon, a letter came to him, with a check for $100 enclosed.

"Didn't I tell you?" she cried. "Didn't I tell you? It's the hand of Providence, Harry, nothing else!"

"Then I'm Providence," he said, "for I wrote Bill a letter 'tother day and told him if he didn't come up I'd come down and take that hundred out of his hide, with compound interest, even if I went to the pen for it!"

HUSBAND IN DESPAIR SICK ALL HER LIFE

Wife Had Ceased Eating and Suffered Continually.

HAS APPETITE NOW.

Mr. J. H. Jonson, of No. 7 Charlotte street, Charleston, wife of J. R. Johnson, the well known engineer on the Seaboard Air Line Railroad, after having received medical advice in Virginia, North Carolina and Tennessee at different intervals since she was fifteen years of age to the effect that she was suffering from ulcerated stomach and gall stone, gave a vivid illustration of what Tanlac is daily accomplishing for like sufferers.

She had stomach trouble all her life, was prone to fits of vomiting and was absolutely lacking in appetite. After taking only two doses of Tanlac, she declares, she ate the first food that she had eaten in sixteen weeks.

"I suffered from stomach trouble all my life," stated Mrs. Johnson. "When I was two years old I was given up by my physicians to die, and again when I was fifteen years. I have had, according to eminent medical advice in Virginia, North Carolina and Tennessee, gall stone and ulcerated stomach, and they finally said an obstruction in my stomach. On consulting medical advice in Charleston, I was informed that it was impossible to state just what the trouble was."

"My most distressing symptom was vomiting. For sixteen weeks before I took Tanlac I had been unable to retain anything on my stomach—not even medicine or raw eggs. I was told that I would have died for lack of nourishment if I had not been so stout. I weighed 227 pounds before I took sick, and I have really lived on superfluous flesh for bodily nourishment. My husband had given up all hope. One evening recently I remarked how badly and emaciated I looked. Mr. Johnson burst out crying, and said 'Lucy, don't say that. Just think! One month ago I thought you would die. I had given up all hope, and here you are nearly well.'"

"It is true. I have taken a little over three bottles of Tanlac. After taking only two doses—now, don't laugh; it is a fact—after I had taken two doses I ate the first food I had eaten in sixteen weeks. I consider that wonderful indeed. I am now eating nearly everything I want. I have not vomited since I took my second dose of Tanlac and I am now feeling much stronger."

"I certainly do recommend Tanlac for what it has done for me. I had nearly given up hope, and Tanlac has done what I didn't think any medicine or physician could do. It is simply wonderful, I cannot say enough good things about it."

"Tanlac is certainly a wonderful medicine, and may God bless it and you. I most surely do recommend it. It has performed a miracle in my case."

Tanlac, the master medicine, is sold by Obeur Drug Co., Winnsboro; Ridgeway Drug Co., Ridgeway; T. A. Ladd, Dawkins; W. H. Suber, Peak; Blair and Long, Blairs; S. F. Castles, Rockton; Swygert & Swygert, Jenkinsville; T. B. Willingham, Strother.—Adv.

Social Affairs.

Miss May Y. Ellison was the hostess at a dainty party for the Thursday Afternoon Bridge club last week. It is the custom of this club to give a party for the member holding the highest score for year, and so Mrs. J. B. Doty was the honoree at Miss Ellison's. The attractive rooms where the card tables were placed were bright with flowers. The games progressed merrily until late in the afternoon, when the hostess served delicious ices.

An unusually pretty reception that of Friday evening which Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Refo gave for Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Autrey who had just returned from their wedding trip. The home was daintily arranged for the occasion, and every where among the flowers candles gleamed, shedding a soft light. The receiving line, was composed of the host and hostess the honorees and the brides and grooms of the spring, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lyles, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Ellison and Mr. and Mrs. Mett Wollong.

From an attractive corner of the porch Misses Bertha Sweet and Bruce Crosby served punch.

During the evening the guests were invited into the dining room by Misses Berta Holley and Eddie Sweet, and served with tempting ices and sweets.

Misses Kate and Lucy Doty, who are entertaining a charming house party, introduced their guests to seventy five or more people at a lovely party on last Friday evening. Their house guests are Misses Crosland, Crouch, White Rowe. On account of the bad weather the lawn could not be used, but the lower floor of the beautiful home and the wide porches were placed at the disposal of the numerous merry makers. Bright flowers added their beauty everywhere. All during the evening deliciously refreshing punch was served, and at a late hour ices and cake.

Last week Mrs. M. W. Doty's home was the scene of an interesting and very delightful affair, when the Cultus club entertained the other clubs of town. A local talent program had been arranged, and it was found most interesting. Poems, prose and music by local composers was either read or discussed, and some fine sketches of the lives of well know Winnsboro celebrities were given. During the pleasant social half hour tempting refreshments were served.

M'MASTER TO LECTURE

Under Auspices of the Civic League Next Friday Night.

Insurance Commissioner, Hon. Fitzhugh McMaster, will lecture here next Friday night under the auspices of the Civic League, or Better Winnsboro Club. Mr. McMaster is a Winnsboro man and will no doubt have a large attendance at this lecture. We do not know the subject of his lecture but it will be along lines of encouragement for a bigger and cleaner Winnsboro. Don't let anything keep you from hearing him.
